DETAILED ACTION

- I. Rejection under 35 USC 112, 2nd paragraph would not be maintained. Applicant has deleted the term "small" from the claims.
- II. Rejection of claims under 35 USC 102(b) as being anticipated by Violanto will not be maintained. Applicant amended claims to recite "aqueous soluble biopolymer".
- III. Rejection of claims 26,28,31-42,45-57,73 under 35 USC 102(b) as being anticipated by Tracey will be maintained for reason on record and reason as follows. Applicant argues that instant claims recite "biopolymers". Applicant argues that Tracey does not disclose the biopolymers of the instant invention. Examiner disagrees with Applicant. Examiner notes that Applicant defines interferon as a biopolymer. Examiner would like to point out that Tracey employs "interferon". In a claim to a composition the intended use of a "component" is not significant.

Claim Objection

Claims 27,43,44,58,67-71 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims. The prior art does not teach or suggest the instant invention comprising a carrier protein.
